Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, In 1967, Craig Dahme graduated from Warner High School, and, in 1971, he received his B.S. in history and a minor in economics from Northern State University; and,

Whereas, Craig has been employed with the Department of Social Services' Division of Child Support for more than 30 years, serving as an investigator, and later being promoted to supervisor of the Aberdeen office; and,

Whereas, Craig has served as a mentor to many, and, in 2007, was selected as Employee of the Year for the Division of Child Support; and,

Whereas, Craig has served on numerous boards and committees throughout his tenure, has held positions at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Aberdeen, and is currently a member of the Lions Club and Courtland Township Board; and,

Whereas, Craig will retire on May 8, 2009, after more than 30 years of service to the state of South Dakota, which will allow him to enjoy more time at his lake home with family and friends; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 8, 2009, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Nine.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
